

344th Military Intelligence Battalion (325) 654-5295

The mission of the 344th Military Intelligence Battalion is to train Soldiers to be Military Intelligence and Cyber professionals who are tactically and technically competent, disciplined, physically fit, instilled with Army values, and ready to join the Joint Team.

It prepares Soldiers to fight our Nation's wars while taking care of them and their Families. The battalion trains Soldiers in four different Military Occupational specialties, Military Intelligence and Cyber. It teaches 21 different courses and has more than 70 classes in session at any given time. It consists of four companies located on two different installations belonging to two different Armed Services. The battalion has more than 300 permanent party members with an annual student throughput of about 1,500 Soldiers.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 Pandemic, special precautions will remain in place in accordance with installation and TRADOC guidance. Any service member (SM) that arrives at Goodfellow AFB via non-government sanitized transportation, MUST be placed into restriction of movement (ROM) status for no less than 14 days prior to attending any of the courses offered by the 344th MI BN.

ALL TDY SOLDIERS MUST HAVE AN ACTIVE GOVERNMENT CREDIT CARD

Government lodging (the Angelo Inn) is available for all Soldiers in a TDY status. Married Soldiers on Permanent Change of Station (PCS) may bring their Families if their orders authorize it. Those married Soldiers who are authorized to bring their Families may reside in housing on-base. Soldiers should be aware that on-base housing is limited when determining if they should bring their Families. If on-base housing is unavailable, Soldiers are authorized off-base housing.

MOS-T and TDY Soldiers

MOS-Ts and TDY Soldiers arriving to Goodfellow AFB via non-sanitized government transportation will report directly to the Angelo Inn, BLDG 3305 across from the Norma Brown Building to initiate 14 day ROM. For lodging reservations call the Angelo Inn: DSN 477-3332, commercial (325) 654-3332. Soldiers will then contact 344th MI BN Staff Duty at (325) 654-5295 to report that they have arrived at Goodfellow and have initiated their ROM. Masks are required at all times when unable to maintain social distancing of 6 feet while on Goodfellow AFB.

Soldiers on ROM on Goodfellow AFB are restricted to Goodfellow AFB and their assigned room, the Commissary, Laundry room and DFAC until completion of their ROM. Once ROM is completed the Soldiers will take guidance on further base restrictions from their respective command teams.

It is recommended that any Soldier traveling to Goodfellow AFB such as MOS-T's or TDY status plan to arrive 14 days prior to their scheduled class date. If any SM is unable to arrive 14 days prior to their scheduled class date, they will be placed on hold-under status until another class date becomes available.

35N Soldiers (USAR/ARNG/RA) attend a 26 week course. IAW the JFTR, this course is a Permanent Change of Station move to Goodfellow AFB. Soldiers authorized to bring Family members may ship household goods. Soldiers authorized to live off post will receive the Goodfellow AFB BAH rates. Soldiers who choose not to bring their Families may submit a waiver request to DA G1 Entitlements Branch based on short term PCS for professional military schooling.

35P Soldiers (USAR/ARNG/RA) attending Arabic, Chinese, Korean, Spanish, Persian-Farsi, Pashtu or Non-Target languages can expect to remain at Goodfellow from 5 to 14 weeks depending on language. IET Soldiers arriving from Basic training (language bypass) will be on Permanent Change of Station status and will be assigned to the barracks. IET Soldiers from the Defense Language Institute and MOS-Ts will be on TDY status. Soldiers on TDY status from DLI will be assigned a barracks room if unaccompanied. TDY and MOS-T Soldiers who are authorized to bring Family members may ship household goods. Soldiers authorized to live off post will receive the Goodfellow AFB BAH rates. Soldiers who choose not to bring their Families may submit a waiver request to DA G1 Entitlements Branch based on short term PCS for professional military schooling.

35S Soldiers (USAR/ARNG/RA) attend a 13 week course. IAW the JFTR, this course is a Permanent Change of Station move to Goodfellow AFB. Soldiers authorized to bring Family members may ship household goods. Soldiers authorized to live off post will receive the Goodfellow AFB BAH rates. Soldiers who choose not to bring their Families may submit a waiver request to DA G1 Entitlements Branch based on short term PCS for professional military schooling.

12M Soldiers (USAR/ARNG/RA) attend a 13 week course. Soldiers in IET status will reside in Government quarters. 12M MOS-T Soldiers not on TDY orders or ADTS orders will also reside in government barracks. All others on TDY status will reside in the Angelo Inn.

Soldiers attending the Firefighters course are required to arrive with a Firefighter Physical prior to class start. Soldiers arriving without the required physical will be returned to their parent unit.

ALL TDY SOLDIERS MUST HAVE AN ACTIVE GOVERNMENT CREDIT CARD